Go Daddy Visits Hope for Haiti

Recently, Hope for Haiti had the pleasure of hosting Go Daddy Founder and CEO Bob Parsons, and his wife Renee, VP of Community Outreach, in Port-au-Prince and Les Cayes, Haiti. It was a "fact finding" mission, as Bob called it, and it was an opportunity for our team to demonstrate the tremendous progress we've made since the devastating January 12, 2010 earthquake. The road to recovery will be long, but with partners like all of you and Go Daddy, we can make an impact in the communities we serve.

Hope for Haiti is proud of its over 20 year history of service to and partnership with the Haitian people. And who better to showcase our work, than one of our steadfast supporters? Below is one of the best pieces to come out of this special visit, and we thank Bob and Renee Parsons for helping us tell our story. ## What can YOU do to help spread the word? Write a Review

Hope for Haiti recently updated its profiles on GuideStar and GreatNonprofits and needs your help. These reviews are provided by GreatNonprofits and appear on both the GuideStar and GreatNonprofits Web sites. They are "user-generated" reviews written by people who have had a direct experience with our organization. Calling all volunteers, board members, donors, interns, and other stakeholders, please share your testimonials of our good work. Thank you!

P.S. Please check out the new Google Translate function on our website and updates "From the Field." Thank you for being a part of our successes. Help us continue to spread HOPE and LOVE to our friends in Haiti in the years to come. DONATE TODAY !
