FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Hope for Haiti Appoints New Member Liz Longmore to Board of Directors

Naples, Florida, December 19, 2019- Hope for Haiti announced that its Board of Directors has unanimously elected Liz Longmore as a new member of the Board, effective October 18, 2019.

Liz Longmore, MSN, RN, is Vice President of Ambulatory Services for Stamford Health and Chief Operating Officer for Stamford Health Medical Group. With over 25 years of healthcare expertise, Liz began her career in nursing where she worked in women's healthcare and expanded her professional experience to emergency services and critical care. As her career developed, she held roles in clinical, educational and operational leadership. Prior to her current role, Liz spearheaded all clinical aspects of the design, construction and operationalization of the new Stamford Hospital which opened its doors in September of 2016. Liz received her nursing degree from Cochran School of Nursing and her bachelor's and master's degrees from Mercy College. Liz resides in Ridgefield, CT with her husband and three children.

"Our entire organization is honored to welcome Liz to our Board of Directors," said Skyler Badenoch, CEO of Hope for Haiti. "She has made a proven commitment to bettering the lives of families in southern Haiti, both individually and through her employer, Stamford Health." "Her dedication, experience and leadership are great additions to our diverse Board of Directors."

Also added to the board is Tim Savage, of Gulf Coast International Properties in Naples, FL. The Hope for Haiti Board of Directors is comprised of individuals from the medical, business, academic, legal and philanthropic community from both Haiti and the USA. It is the Board's responsibility to provide counsel and guidance on Hope for Haiti's programs, governance, operations and strategic direction.
